

Conflict Minerals Statement

SoundOff CVP is committed to supporting responsible sourcing of its materials from suppliers that share our values around human rights and environmental responsibility. To further this objective, we are committed to complying with the requirements set forth in the final rule regarding the use of “Conflict Minerals” under Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, and the related rules and regulations issued by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

The definition of “Conflict Minerals” are raw materials tin, tantalum, tungsten and gold mined in and around the Democratic Republic of Congo which may be funding armed groups engaged in the exploitation of individuals and resources.

SoundOff CVP is committed to being a responsible corporate citizen in all aspects of our business and are committed to working with our supply chain to ensure continued compliance with section 1502. We will share documentation regarding supplier sourced minerals that are used in our products to our customers upon request.
